

Crimson Connection

Every Friday evening from 7pm, the Christchurch Bahá'ís will be hosting a series of themed, multi-faith, multi-cultural devotional and discussion circles for you and your friends to attend. Come and relax, let go of your weekly stresses, talk about things that matter, catch up with old friends and make new ones, feed your spirit with enlightening words and heart-warming music and finish off with a bit of socializing over tea and treats.

You are welcome as our guest to come and enjoy these evenings at your leisure. Feel free to bring your friends and family along, and anyone who may need a bit of tranquillity, joy and refreshment in their lives.

We will begin with Maori welcome, inspirational music and short meditation time, followed by optional prayers and readings. We will have some prayers, readings and quotations in English, Maori and other languages, but please feel free to offer up your own prayers, poems or songs in whichever language you feel comfortable. Discussion will focus on the theme of the week and you may share any questions, thoughts or happenings from your experiences.

Where & When?
